SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—[Special.]—The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has at last had the final word from the Interior Department in the matter of its application for the appointment of a commission to examine the railroad of the Southern Pacific Company in the Territories of Arizona and New Mexico. The questions have been pending for some time, but the brief was not filed until about the time that the attorneys for the company supposed said report and documents of the Interior to would be transmitted. The attorneys for the Southern Pacific Company is Mr. Charles B. Turner, son-in-law of Mr. William H. Evarts, and to his and with Mr. Turner. The brief submitted is an important one. It is an exposition in its argument on the rights which the land-grant roads which the public lawyers property for Congressional committees to pass or to be presented to Government officials for their approval. One of the salient points of policy to contemplate with these land-grant roads is that the opinion of the Attorney-General in the so-called "Sunderland" land-grant case, which it seems, the president is considered with would be Southern Pacific into court to the Texas Pacific land-grant, was presented to Texas Pacific to submit new facts bearing on the determination of the United States that by the laws adopted in the case. If this is true, such a statement of proceeding of course serves a very great deal of possibility of that department of justice, which can be quite promptly upset by the "new and startling facts" Washington is a vast but great to which to prepare legal opinions in the southern department and will also avoid the necessity of subsequent appeal to the courts.

The following is a brief synopsis of this latest brief:

[SPECIAL DISPATCH.]

New York, July 26.—[Special.]—This afternoon the streets of the City police received a report that a man had been killed in a riot on Staten Island. The police started in search of the murderers, but up to a late hour this evening no arrests had been made. The police were unable to learn the name of the dead man, but it is believed that he was a member of a political party from Staten Island, and that the murder was committed by members of the opposing party. The police are also trying to find out the cause of the riot, but as yet have been unsuccessful.

M'DERMOTT'S ARRAIGN.

[SPECIAL TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

New York, July 26.—[Special.]—Joseph McDermott, who was arrested last night on a charge of having in his possession counterfeit money, was arraigned before Commissioner Shields this morning. The prisoner was represented by Lawyer Ellis, who asked that the case be adjourned for a week, as he had been employed by McDermott's friends only last night. The request was granted, and McDermott was remanded to the Tombs. Further facts in connection with the counterfeiting affair have been developed. It is said that the counterfeiters have been operating in Chicago for some time, and that the police of that city have been aware of their movements. Their operations were confined principally to the manufacture of one-dollar bills, which they passed in Chicago and other Western cities. It is said that the counterfeiters have been in this city for about a week, and that the police have been watching their movements closely. They were finally arrested in a saloon on Bowery, while they were trying to sell some of the bills to a saloon-keeper. The police claim that they have evidence to show that the prisoners have been engaged in the business for a long time, and that they have passed a large amount of counterfeit money. The prisoners will be arraigned before Commissioner Shields this afternoon.

PATRICK CORRIGAN'S BOOK.

[SPECIAL TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

New York, July 26.—[Special.]—A reporter called at Mayor Hewitt's house this morning to ascertain if the Mayor had received a copy of the book written by Father Corrigan, the latter purchased the manuscript from the author and had it published. The Mayor declined to say anything in relation to the matter, as the subject was one which concerned the Catholic Church in this country. He did not care to talk, as he was personally anxious that the peace of the country, so far as it could be done by the action of the Mayor of this city, should not be disturbed.
